

Personal Learning Insights Profile®

Maximise Every Learning Opportunity

To be successful in today's dynamic, information-intensive world, organisations know they must encourage and support effective, lifelong learning at all levels of the organisation. The Personal Learning Insights Profile® is the reliable, easy-to-use learning strategy you need. It's designed to help people identify their personal learning approach, communicate their learning needs, and access more effective learning resources. The result? Enthusiastic learners who are able to more quickly develop new capacities, discover new ways of thinking, and achieve new levels of innovative performance.

Explore Three Key Aspects of Learning

The Personal Learning Insights Profile is a self-directed learning instrument that helps people identify and understand how they experience, process, organise, store, and retrieve information. The profile provides a valid, reliable framework for exploring three important components of cognitive learning: Learning Purpose, Learning Structure, and Learning Activity.

Invest in Learning Today for Tomorrow's Success

The Personal Learning Insights Profile® is a flexible, multipurpose tool that helps individuals and facilitators clearly understand and communicate different learning needs, develop effective formal learning opportunities, and capitalise on informal learning across a wide range of applications, including

- personal and career development
- management and leadership development
- communication skills
- team-building
- coaching and mentoring
- performance improvement
- group facilitation skills

Light the Way to Individual, Team, and Organisational Learning

Organisations use the Personal Learning Insights Profile to help people

- understand what motivates them to learn
- recognise how they prefer information to be presented
- discover activities that enhance learning effectiveness
- develop action plans to maximise learning
- design learning resources and experiences that meet diverse needs
